“Many of you out there in the audience hate me because I’m black. But as I stand here before you today, I want to tell you that I am more similar to you than you think. Like you, I feel an overwhelming hatred for Muslims, especially small Afghani and Pakistani children. Already I have killed thousands of them to rid the world of this plague, and I will continue to indiscriminately kill Muslims wherever they threaten America’s access to and control of precious fossil fuel resources. Like your Nazi heroes, I also hate freedom. For those of you who have followed my presidency, you already know that I have done everything in my power to further the legacy of George W. Bush, constricting the civil liberties of Americans, and preventing the traitors in our midst from hiding behind the Constitution.”

President Barack Obama addressing the American Nazi Party’s annual convention in Cleveland, Ohio on February 11, 2013.
